Business Description	In 2004, the renowned Guy Savoy created a new dining experience, a mere stone's throw away from l'Etoile and the Champs Elysées: the Michelin starred Le Chiberta. Throughout its myriad rooms are scattered contemporary artworks by Bertrand Lavier and Gérard Traquandi. Each space can be adapted to the occasion, from business lunches to themed dinners to personalized breakfasts. At the hands of a team very much guided by the 'Guy Savoy spirit', directed by his associate Thierry Belin and with chef Irwin Durand leading the kitchen, Le Chiberta brims with imaginative treasures.
